

To: All Anywak People in North America
From: ACANA Executive Committee

Dear Brothers and Sisters;

The massacre of our people continues by Ethiopian troops with no end in sight. Since that day up to December 16, 2003, 151 Anywak have been killed and buried, more than 200 are in hospital and many more are missing and presumed dead according to the phone call to Regional President Okello Akway. Anywak Community Association in North America urges you to strongly condemn this unlawful and immoral act. It is our pleasure to invite you to attend the upcoming emergency meeting, which will be held at Calvary's Anywak Congregation Church;

Where: 2120 Lexington Ave North, Roseville, MN
When: December 20, 2004.
Time: 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM.
And : We will have protest rally at the Capitol Building in St. Paul from 1:00 PM to 4: 00 PM

The meeting is open to everybody to answer the question " what can we do?" Your voice will make a difference! Thank You!

Sincerely;

The Executive Committee

Notice:

1. Please pass this message around to everybody nearby.
2. Please let us do a teamwork effort to give a ride to those who don't transportation to get there or give us a call for ride before Friday at (952) 736-9946.
3. Since we are expecting 250 - 500 people that will attend the protest rally at the Capitol Building, there might be a shortage protest slogans (signs). Please we are kindly asking few of you would make one for yourself, but not everybody. Thanks!!

Let us remember the following our beloved brothers and sister who are dead. The Number does change in everyday and on the way:
